CUSTOMIZE POWER AND EFFICIENCY AT THE EVONIK DERBY DURING THE 74TH ANNUAL STLE MEETING

Horsham, PA USA, April 2019 – Evonik will exhibit at the STLE Annual Meeting & Exhibition – stand #301, May 19–23, 2019 in Nashville, Tennessee – featuring a ‘Pine Derby Race’ where attendees can customize a car and feel the power of Evonik’s oil additives first hand.

“Additive technology is very familiar to our customers, and now they’ll have an interactive way to learn even more while customizing their own car,” said Vice President of Strategic Marketing of Evonik Oil Additives USA, Inc., Richard Van Sleet. “The Evonik Derby will create a fun atmosphere and an informative way for attendees to ask questions and see how Evonik’s additive technology can make a difference in real life applications.”

In addition to the stand exhibition, experts from Evonik will present seven Technical and Commercial Marketing Forum presentations focused on additive technology benefits in lubricants for various industries, including:
